

Tell us your story!

We are looking for parents who (want to) live in different countries and have or have had conflicts in the past about the custody and place of residence of their children. We would be happy to talk to you!

We are a research team at the University of Vienna. We are interested in your personal experiences, thoughts and challenges!

The interview

- can take place in person or digitally.
- is confidential and anonymous.
- is possible in different languages.

You will receive 100€ for your participation

If possible, we would also like to talk to other people in your family about this topic! They will also receive 100€.

We are looking forward to talk to you!
